

7 Important Last Year Questions

1. If I had this year to do over, what would I do differently?

2. What is my biggest achievement this year?

3. What was the most challenging thing I did this year?

4. What did I learn? Skills? Knowledge?

5. Have I invested in my personal and professional growth? How?

6. How would I rate this year in terms of happiness?

7. For what am I most grateful for?

7 Important New Year Questions

1. How would I like this year to be different?

2. What new skills do I want to learn?

3. What new success habits I am going to develop this year?

4. What tools and techniques I am going to use to stay focused and motivated?

5. In what ways can I be more giving?

6. What one thing would make the biggest improvement in my life?

7. What are my core values and why they are important in my life?

My Best Success Tip

If you would ask me 'What is one single tip you can share that will help me to be more successful next year?' I wouldn't even think before answering.

➡ Invest in yourself!

Develop yourself. Learn something new on the constant basis. Improve yourself in professional and in spiritual way.

You are always your best investment.

Create new self-investment habit. Decide what percentage of your monthly income you can afford to spend on your education and self-development. Then think what books you are going to buy, what courses you could take.

For a great place to start and learn how to achieve your goals, how to become more efficient, how to manage your time, and create unlimited energy visit:

www.how-to-set-and-achieve-a-goal.com

Enter your name and email address and you'll instantly find out:

- Why your comfort zone is your danger zone and what is the most effective way to get out of it.
- How to forget about willpower and self-discipline and discover how to resist any temptation with one simple question.
- The three-letter secret success word that you must know (and use!) in order to be successful.
- How to stop putting things off and eliminate procrastination from your life.
- And a lot more techniques, ideas and winning tactics...

Click here to learn!